

JACQUELINE A. SALCINES, ESQ.
CURRICULUM VITAE

Jacqueline A. Salcines, Esq. attended the University of Miami School of Law, Coral Gables, Florida, where she graduated in 1998. After graduation, Mrs. Salcines became a member of the Florida Bar in 1999. She is also a member of the Bar of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, United States Court of Appeals for the Third District, Attorney's Real Estate Council and Dade County Bar Association. She is also an active real estate agent associate.

Prior to attending law school, Mrs. Salcines obtained her Bachelor in Business Administration majoring in Accounting in 1995. She worked for the family accounting practice as a bookkeeper since the age of 16, and later as an accountant for 5 years after graduating. That is when she decided to pursue her passion for law, and enrolled in law school at the University of Miami, working as a paralegal in law firms full time during the day, while attending law school at night.

As a practicing attorney, Mrs. Salcines is a member of the Federal and Florida Bar Associations. Prior to opening her own law firm, she worked as an associate at a federal/civil litigation/real estate law firm. In 1999, Mrs. Salcines went out on her own and established the law firm known as Jacqueline A. Salcines, PA. She continues to practice real estate, litigation and banking law.

Since 2002, Mrs. Salcines' practice has consisted of primarily real estate law, title, and business matters. The firm and its associates and of counsel, handle both residential and commercial real estate closings, title and escrow services, business law, civil litigation, contract preparation, foreclosure defense, debt and loan settlement as well as and landlord tenant transactions.

Her office has been located in Coral Gables for the past ten (10) years.
